EXPLORE DONEGAL

With its rich cultural heritage and breathtaking scenery, Donegal is the perfect place to explore.

Check out the "Must See Sightings" listed below.

Wild Atlantic Way

Out at the very edge of Europe, the Wild Atlantic Way (WAW) stretches for 2,500 km (1,500 miles) along Ireland's western seaboard from Malin Head in Co. Donegal to Kinsale in Co. Cork.

Donegal's Wild Atlantic Way is a 500km driving route that takes you through some of Ireland's most beautiful and unspoilt landscapes.

There are 39 Discovery Points in Donegal with the top 3 'Must See' Points of Malin Head, Fanad Head and Sliabh Liag.

Signature Locations

Malin Head

Ireland's most northerly point is surrounded by 3 sides with cliff and rock formations teeming wildlife and sea birds.

Fanad Head

Home of Fanad Lighthouse, with spectacular views of the Atlantic Ocean and Tory Island out at sea.

Sliabh Liag

The highest accessible sea cliffs in Europe reaching a height of 1,972 feet/601 meters with walks along the summit of the cliff.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES

Donegal provides a brilliant backdrop for the plethora of activities which the county offers. Golfers don't need to go far to find a green, anglers can cast upon the many lakes & rivers or one could simply trek along the vast landscape on horseback.

Family Activities

With its excellent leisure centres, cinemas and indoor play areas, the county is well equipped to keep the kids and the parents entertained - even on a day when the sun doesn't shine. Donegal's great parks, open-top farms and adventure playgrounds mean you will never be stuck for a fun-filled time!

Highly Recommended Glenveagh National Park

Lying in the heart of the Derryveagh Mountains in the north-west of the county, the national park is a remote and hauntingly beautiful wilderness of rugged mountains, pristine lakes, tumbling waterfalls and enchanted oak woodland. At the centre of the park on the edge of Lough Veagh is the 19th century castellated mansion.

LEISURE ACTIVITIES

Golf

Home to the 2018 Irish Open and Annual Irish Legends event, tee-off at one of the numerous Championship Links and Parkland courses all over the county from Ballyliffin to Bundoran. The challenging terrain makes playing golf in Donegal memorable. Not only is the golf great, but this part of northwest Ireland has the best scenery to go with its greenery.
